St. James's, August 3.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors, within the Shire of Argyll, having been transmitted to the Lord Viscount Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors, within the Shire of Argyll.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors, within the Shire of Argyll, assembled to consider on the most effectual Means of promoting the Public Service, humbly beg to address your Majesty.

Penetrated with unshaken Zeal for your Royal Person, and enflamed with ardent Love for our Country, we feel ourselves instigated with just Abhorrence at the concerted Designs of France and Spain to dismember the British Empire.

We desire to assure your Majesty, that we are ever ready, but more particularly on this Occasion, to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government; and that, trusting in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, we have full Confidence that those hostile Powers will soon repent the Temerity of their ambitious Measures.

May your Majesty long reign the faithful Guardian of the Liberties of a free People, and your Posterity sway the British Sceptre to the latest Ages.

Signed, in Presence and by Appointment of the Meeting,

Inverary,

John Campbell, Præses.
